Brandi Chastain

Brandi Denise Chastain is a professional American soccer defender and midfielder who plays for the team California Storm of Women's Premier Soccer League and is a former member of the United States women's national soccer team. She is best known for her game-winning penalty shootout kick against China in the 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup final.

Luis Gonzalez

Luis Gonzalez is one of the most popular figures in Arizona Diamondbacks' history because of the way he interacted with fans and his game-winning single in Game 7 of the 2001 World Series to give the organization its first World Championship.

Amanda Borden

Amanda Borden was captain of the U.S. Olympic Gymnastics Team, dubbed The Magnificent Seven, which took home the gold medal at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta. Along with their gold, they made history by becoming the first U.S. Women's Gymnastics team ever to win an Olympic games. More than 15 years later they are still the only American Women's Gymnastics team to have won team gold.

Nick Lowery

Nicknamed 'Nick the Kick', The Kansas City Chiefs Hall of Famer was 7 times All-Pro, and was the most accurate kicker in NFL History.

He won the NFL Players Humanitarian Award, the Justice Byron Whizzer White Award, and helped launch Americorps for President Clinton.

He is a graduate of Dartmouth and Harvard.
